The Climbing Environment

We are again pleased to present to you this capsule on the 1962 Clemson football team. It is our hope that this brochure will assist you from time to time during the coming season.

We realize that all the answers are not in this book. But we will welcome the opportunity to fill any reasonable request made to us for stories, pictures, radio tapes and the like.

Requests for working press, radio and photographer tickets should be made directly to the Sports Information Office, preferably a week in advance of the game concerned. These requests will be honored from sports editors and sports directors only.

The press box is operated for the convenience of the working press. No women, other than accredited women sportswriters and Western Union operators, will be admitted in the press box at anytime. No children are allowed.

Please do not ask for more working press passes than you need. We are expecting a record coverage for our five home games this season. Please do not bring your "traveling buddy" or "driver" in the press box.

The press box is operated in accordance with recommendations of the Football Writers Association of America and the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association. For your comfort, we ask your cooperation in this endeavor.

THE FRONT COVER

Our good friend, Phil Neel of the Birmingham Post-Herald, has again followed through with our idea of the brochure cover. This year "Clem Tiger" will attempt to scale the 10 peaks of "The Bengal Range" and make the conquests of Sir Edmund Hillary and his mountain climbing cohorts look like an ordinary Sunday afternoon stroll in the park.

CLEMSON MEMORIAL STADIUM

This scene is expected to be repeated Nov. 24th when South Carolina pays its second visit to "Death Valley." New Horizons . . .

Frank Howard faces one of his biggest rebuilding tasks for the 1962 season. Many moons have passed by the horizon since seven starters and six off the alternate unit were missing in one year.

But the optimistic Howard believes his team will be improved over the 5-5 squad of a year ago. "I'm not saying what our won-loss record will be," Howard says, "but I think we'll be better off in several respects."

"We are lighter in the line, but the boys on hand have a little better speed than before. And I'm sure our backfield will have more speed. We haven't been too well blessed in this department for the past several seasons."

Sixteen lettermen were lost from last year through graduation and three more lost their battle with the books. This leaves 20 returning for this fall.

The four starters coming back are ends Coleman Glaze and Bob Poole, tackle Dave Hynes and quarterback Joe Anderson.

Howard has been able to move up lettermen to fill these vacancies at all positions except center. Here the first four at the start of spring practice were all sophomores.

End looks like the strongest position with Glaze, Poole, Johnny Case, Lou Fogle and Oscar Thorsland in the fold again.

Hynes, the 1962 captain, has switched from the right to the left side of the line and he is teamed with senior Don Chuy. Behind these two are Joseph Balles and Johnny Boyette with Wade Hall and Karl Engel the next choices. Boyette is considered one of the best prospects to come along in a long time.

A senior, four juniors and a sophomore appear to be the first six guards with juniors Walter Cox and Jack Aaron the starters backed by Billy Weaver, Clark Gaston, J. W. Black and Carew Alvarez. Black is the senior, Alvarez the sophomore.

The center slot seems to be wide open. Ted Bunton, Dave Haladay, Bruce McClure and Richard Cooper—all sophomores—finished in that order following spring practice.

What caused the most concern with the centers, as well as the right guard, is that these two serve as linebackers on defense. Linebackers missing from last year include three centers and two right guards.

One position that is in good hands is quarterback. Jim Parker and Joe Anderson, one and two in total offense a year ago, both return. These two accounted for 1,816 of Clemson's total yardage output of 3,075 in 1961.

Sophomores Jimmy Bell and Thomas Ray and junior Mac Renwick give support to Anderson and Parker.

Mack Matthews returns at right half back after a year's absence 18 pounds heavier but just as fast. He has behind him sophomores of note—Jim Skiffey, Billy Ward and George Sutton.

On the other side of the backfield is veteran Elmo Lam, a team leader in punt returns and pass receiving last season. Lam missed spring practice playing regular shortstop for the Tiger baseballers.

Junior Jerry Taylor saw enough duty as a sophomore in '61 to earn a letter and backs Lam. In behind these two lettermen are sophomores Hal Davis and Ronnie Fowler.

Fullback is expected to get the most attention in fall practice. With Bill McGuirt dropping out of summer school and becoming ineligible, Howard will be forced to do some experimenting.

He has Jimmy Howard, a junior letterman, and Bob Fritz, used sparingly in '61. Pat Crain and Charlie Dumas, two sophomores, are expected to be given quite a bit of attention.

Rodney Rogers, who has been groomed to spell the quarterbacks on defense, may be tried at fullback. He is a senior.

One other letterman who is an important spoke in the wheel is Eddie Werntz, a punter deluxe. The student body-recruited Georgian averaged 40.2 on 56 boots as a junior and has earned his board and keep 10 fold. Howard gets plenty of kick using Werntz.

That's the way things looked September 1. What the picture will be 10 games hence is something Lloyds of London would not issue a policy on.

Aspirations and Struggle . . .

October 1, 1962 will find IPTAY beginning its 29th year. Where Clemson athletics would be without this unique organization makes most Tiger supporters cringe at the thought.

The club is the backbone of athletics at Clemson, supporting all sports—football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, cross country, tennis and swimming.

Although there are several versions as to just how IPTAY started, a letter written by Dr. Rupert H. (Rube) Fike—the father of IPTAY—to Coach Jess Neely dated Aug. 21, 1934, seems to pretty well pinpoint the exact date of formation. Dr. Fike said in his opening statement of the letter:

“Last night we had a little meeting out at my house (in Atlanta) and organized the IPTAY Club.” He went on to say that those attending the meeting were George Suggs, Gene Cox, E. L. Hutchins, Bill Dukes, J. R. Pennell, George Klugh, Milton Berry, Jack Mitchell and Fike.

As close as can be determined, there were 185 people who were members of IPTAY during that first year of 1934-35. Fifty-three of these are now deceased, and of the 133 others, 89, or 66.9 percent, are still members of IPTAY.

Anyone, regardless of alma mater or age, can become a member of IPTAY. The men, women and children who are a part of IPTAY are interested in seeing the Clemson Tigers retain a high ranking in the athletic world.

IPTAY—I Pay Ten A Year—was born for just one purpose—to finance athletic scholarships at Clemson. That is still the way IPTAY is run today. The money received is used solely for scholarships.

Through IPTAY over 1,000 athletes have received an education that might not have otherwise been possible. And after finishing their classroom and athletic work at Clemson, a large percentage of “IPTAY graduates” have gone on to make respectable showings in the business world.

Since IPTAY was formed Clemson football teams have won 162, lost 97 and tied 12, or 62 per cent of their games. For 15 years prior to IPTAY Clemson won less than half of its football games—47 per cent to be exact.

The championships won not only by the football teams but by other athletic teams are proof that IPTAY is truly the life blood of Clemson athletics.

Unfinished Adventure . . .

Clemson opens its 67th year of football this fall under its 17th head coach, who with Coach Jess Neely of Rice, has been at one institution longer than anyone else in the nation.

Frank Howard is preparing his 23rd Clemson team for the toughest schedule any Tiger team has ever been called on to play.

Football has brought Clemson fame to the four corners of the earth, starting with that first team in 1896, which won 2 and lost 1.

Then all players wore laced leather jackets, no head-gear, a few nose and shin guards and padded trousers and all had a heavy head of hair

In a record of the 1897 team it was noted that the players wore striped jerseys and socks of orange and purple, hence the name "Tigers."

By 1899 some head gear began to appear and a year later John Heisman brought bigtime football to Clemson with the first undefeated team. The 1906 squad was also undefeated, but had two ties.

What became known as the Pendleton Escapade of April 1, 1908, resulted in expulsion of 306 students, including many football players. This thoroughly demoralized football at Clemson and ushered in the so-called "dark ages" which, except for a few minor resurgencies, was to last for nearly two decades.

A step toward football as known today came in 1916 when Clemson players wore numbers on their jerseys the first time.

E. A. "Jiggs" Donahue brought the Tigers through the World War I era with E. J. "Doc" Stewart taking over for two years and Bud Saunders taking the next three and a fraction. Records list three head coaches during the 1926 season.

Then came four highly respectable teams of Josh Cody before Jess Neely and Frank Howard arrived on the scene—Neely as head coach and Howard as his line coach.

It was during Neely's nine years that IPTAY was born, the organization which is credited with bringing Clemson out of its last real athletic tailspin.

Neely brought Clemson its first bowl team. Howard has produced six more for the records. The Tigers are respected anywhere they play. Players are recognized for their efforts. The present and future schedules reveal outstanding opponents.

Clemson football has traveled a long ways since that first three-game schedule which included Furman, South Carolina and Wofford.

A Chance To Conquer . . .

The Leader And . . .

FRANK JAMES (FRANK) HOWARD

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR AND HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Frank Howard, who turned 53 this past March, recently indicated he would like to coach until he is 60 years old.

If this wish holds true, it would mean the man who has kept Clemson on the football map for the past 22 seasons would retire at the end of the 1969 season after being head man for 30 years and a member of the staff for 39 years.

Howard

This is in no way an official announcement of Howard's retirement seven years hence. By then he may feel like Stan Musial in that there's one more good year left in ye ole bones.

Only one person — end coach Bob Jones — has been associated with Clemson football longer than Howard. Jones arrived on the scene as a student in 1927 and Howard came on in 1931.

In its 66-year history of football Clemson has played 571 games. Howard has seen 300 of these—85 as coach and 215 as head coach.

Right now Howard's main concern though is preparing his 23rd team for probably the hardest schedule ever handed a Clemson team.

To Howard, football is three things—blocking, tackling and pass defense. "I don't care about fancy formations, or new offenses, or stunts on defense," he says. "If you block, tackle and break up passes better than the team you're playing, you'll win."

Behind The Ranges . . .

Back in 1954 the Clemson Athletic Association decided to organize a radio network which would bring Clemson football games into every corner of South Carolina and in neighboring states.

The Clemson Football Network, operated wholly by the athletic association, has been one of the most successful anywhere.

During the 1961 season the network had 475 station broadcasts, or an average of 47.5 stations per game—an all-time high. Feeds were made to stations in North Carolina, Georgia and South Carolina.

The same two familiar voices will again be on the network for the 1962 season. Jimmie Coggins will handle the play-by-play commentary while Ed Osborne will describe the pre-game warm-up, give time out chatter and interview visiting scouts, sportswriters and other personalities in the press box during halftime.

Coggins, the dean of South Carolina sports broadcasters, is owner of Station WKDK in Newberry and is co-owner with Osborne of Station WBCU in Union and WAGS in Bishopville.

Coggins broke into radio 28 years ago with WSPA in Spartanburg. He also worked at WAIM in Anderson before going to Newberry in 1949. Prior to joining the network in 1954 he broadcast the Clemson games during the seasons of 1936-37-38-47-48-49. In 1950-51-52 he did the "Game of the Week" on Station WIS, Columbia.

Osborne served as director of both the Clemson News Bureau and the sports publicity office from 1947 through the spring of 1950. The Clemson graduate then got into radio work with WMSC in Columbia as sales representative and sports director. Since early 1953, he has been manager of WBCU.

Osborne is a past president of the South Carolina Broadcasters Assn. Coggins was singled out in 1960 by being voted the "Sports Announcer of the Year" in South Carolina.

The Great Ones . . .

(We have made an effort to tabulate a list of Clemson athletes who have made All-American, All-Southern Conference, All-South, All-South Atlantic, All-Atlantic Coast Conference, All-State and any other honor of state, sectional or national importance. In our research the first mention of an all-state team was in 1911 and the initial All-Southern Conference mention was made in 1902. Any additions or corrections to the below-listed names will be appreciated. All listings are first team unless otherwise designated.)

The Grandest View on Earth

Clemson College became a reality Nov. 27, 1889 when the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina drew up an Act of Acceptance of the will of Thomas Green Clemson. Clemson gave his Fort Hill Estate to the State for the establishment of an agricultural and mechanical college. Mr. Clemson himself was a distinguished scientist of his day and served as the nation's first superintendent (now secretary) of agriculture. He married the daughter of John C. Calhoun, the noted Southern statesman. Calhoun's home stands restored on the Clemson campus today.

The college is located in the northwestern corner of South Carolina, 30 miles from the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains on Highways 123, 76 and 28. The college has grown from an institution of 446 students when it opened its doors in 1893 to present day enrollment of approximately 4,300 graduate and undergraduate students. The campus proper contains nearly 30,000 acres of land.

Dr. Robert Cook Edwards, who was first appointed acting president in 1958 following the sudden death of Dr. Robert Franklin Poole, was named president in 1959. At the time of his appointment, Dr. Edwards was head of the college's Department of Development.

Under the post war administrations of Drs. Poole and Edwards the Clemson physical plant has grown to meet the rapidly rising needs of the college.

Among buildings added in the last 12 years have been the Clemson House hotel, two faculty-student housing projects, laundry, steam plant, dormitories housing over 2,500, ceramic engineering building, structural science building, chemical engineering building, the agricultural center, chemistry building, agricultural engineering building, physics building, English and mathematics classrooms and fulling equipping the Clemson textile building.

Other buildings seen for the immediate future include a library and additional dormitories. Still others are in the planning stage.

The college is composed of six schools—agriculture, architecture, arts and sciences, engineering, and industrial management and textile science.

There are 30 curriculums of the college for undergraduates with graduate work toward a master's degree offered in 26 fields. There are now eight programs leading to a doctorate degree.

This past summer a new program was started which leads to a bachelor of arts degree.

1962-63 Basketball . . .

Because of a surprising development during the summer, Clemson's basketball team trots on the floor in December under a new coach.

Press Maravich, who brought the Tigers to a respectable position in the tough Atlantic Coast Conference, decided to resign his post at Clemson and become assistant to Coach Everett Case at North Carolina State College.

Named to replace the departed Serb is Bobby Roberts, four years an assistant under Maravich.

Roberts will have at his command some of the best basketball material ever assembled at Clemson.

The five "sizzling sophs" who started practically every game last year all return. This smooth-working quint includes Jim Brennan, Nick Milasnovich, Donnie Mahaffey, Mike Bohonak and Woody Morgan.

Also returning are seniors Larry Seitz and Chuck Narvin and juniors Gary Burnisky, Richard Hall and Manning Privette.

Advancing from the freshman squad are Donnie Seitz, Stuart MacHolmes, Rudy Antoncic and Sam Cohn.

One of the most welcomed additions to the squad is the return of guard Choppy Patterson. For two straight years (1959-60 and 1960-61) Patterson led the Tigers in scoring. But a traffic accident in May of 1961 put the peppery little guard out of action for a year. He has a full year of eligibility remaining.
